A Queer Cure.
"Riding on an elephant in Ceylon, be and a native prince on a hunting expedition," said a clergyman, "the conversation chanced to turn on indiges tion, to which I said I was subject. The prince at once pulled out a black leather button kind of thing, which he was wearing on a string round his neck under his clothes.
"'What's this?' said I.

"'A hyena's snout,' was the startling

" 'To cure indigestion.' "How can it do this?" "It is very simple. A hyena gets its living by digging up and crunching old bones. Now, it possesses in its snout this peculiar virtue—that when its nose approaches anything hard, such as bones, these tough substances instantly grow soft and enable the animal to eat m with comfort and benefit. So you will find that if you keep this charm hanging round your neck the proximity of the hyena's nose, though dried up and lifeless, will soften your food, however indigestible, to such an extent that you will never again suffer from mdigestion."

A Witty Forloralty.
A forlorn looking man said, "I've tried everything that I could turn my hand to, but couldn't make anything answer, and now I have decided to go up among the hills, where they say there's a wonderful echo, to see if I can make that answer."
